Dear Ms. Sinram:

The National Republican Congressional Committee (FEC ID# C0075820) is in receipt of your Request for Additional Information dated May 29, 2009 regarding our Amended 2008 October monthly FEC report.

With respect to the three payees referenced in your letter from our 48-hour Independent Expenditure notice filings: the Committee had not received invoices for these three expenditures as of 9/30/08. However, as per your letter, we have amended our October 2008 monthly report to reflect these three amounts as memo-entries on Schedule E, and have included them as debt items on Schedule D. We have also amended our 2008 12-day Pre-General report to reflect on Schedule D that these debt amounts were paid in that reporting period.

The National Republican Congressional Committee was authorized to make coordinated expenditures on behalf of Marilyn Musgrave by both the Republican National Committee and the Colorado Republican Federal Campaign Committee; on behalf of Richard Goddard by both the Republican National Committee and the Georgia Republican Party; on behalf of Martin Ozinga III by both the Republican National Committee and the Illinois Republican Party; on behalf of Steven Brett Guthrie by both the Republican National Committee and the Republican Party of Kentucky; on behalf of Timothy L. Walberg by both the Republican National Committee and the Michigan Republican Party; on behalf of Erik Paulsen by both the Republican National Committee and Republican Party of Minnesota; on behalf of Chris Meyers by both the Republican National Committee and the New Jersey Republican State Committee; on behalf of Jon C. Porter, Sr. by both the Republican National Committee and the Nevada Republican State Central Committee; on behalf of Darren P. White by both the Republican National Committee and the Republican Campaign Committee of New Mexico; on behalf of Lou Barletta by both the Republican National Committee and the Republican Federal Committee of Pennsylvania; and on behalf of John Gard by both the Republican National Committee and the Republican Party of Wisconsin. Therefore, there are no excessive coordinated expenditures with respect to these candidates. However, the FEC's electronic filing software permits only one authorizing committee to be listed.

Sincerely:

Keith A. Davis, Treasurer
National Republican Congressional Committee
